

Poetry Corner

by Phil Sukenik

This weekend is our time to shine,
With those lovely ladies who will come to dine,
For a celebration like no other,
This weekend, a "shout out" to all the Mothers.

It's a day that we always do our best,
Mother's Day; done better than the rest,
Let's show those mom's what we can do,
With love and service and really great food.

It's a great a time to show Mom what's new,
Better service, side salads, and a great menu,
Let's make those Mom's want to come again,
And again, and again, and again!

So, it's Mother's Day, this much is true,
Let's put on a smile and shine our shoes,
Of course, safety shoes on one and all!
Because no one's mom wants to see them fall....

Have a great Mother's Day Everyone
Let's Rock and Roll!
